

In my project I grew radishes for 28 days with a green LED, a blue LED, a white LED and an incandescent bulb. Afterwards I weighed all the plants to find an average for each light type. White LED did the best. Incandescent was second, blue was third best and green was worst.