Jaramillo Osorio awarded SPIE Optics and Photonics Education Scholarship

BELLINGHAM, Washington, USA – May 31, 2019 – John Alexis Jaramillo Osorio has been awarded a 2019 Optics and Photonics Education Scholarship by SPIE, the international society for optics and photonics, for his potential contributions to the field of optics, photonics or related field.

Jaramillo is currently pursuing his PhD in physics at the Universidad de Antioquia (Colombia) where he works under the supervision of Prof. John Fredy Barrera Ramírez. His major area of research is encryption and data validation, optical information processing and digital holography. He has authored/co-authored several journal articles and conference proceedings. Jaramillo is also the president of the SPIE Student Chapter and he has participated and volunteered at several outreach activities to increase the interest in optics.

The Society awarded $298,000 in education scholarships to 84 outstanding SPIE student members, based on their potential contribution to optics and photonics, or a related discipline. Award-winning applicants were evaluated, selected and approved by the SPIE Scholarship Committee, Chaired by SPIE volunteer Jeremy Bos.

Through 2018, SPIE has distributed $6 million dollars in individual scholarships. This ambitious effort reflects the Society's commitment to education and to the next generation of optical scientists and engineers around the world.
